

DAYS OF GRATITUDE

Friday Nov 26

1pm-5pm

Participate in a cultural exchange with a Native nation

Explore the significance of Tribal Sovereignty to American Democracy

Study and practice the role of gratitude in leadership

Develop the ability to advocate for social justice

Photos: Top: Quinalt Nation Cultural Commissioner Titus Capoeman and students gather around RS Capoeman canoe the students helped build. Middle: Ahouse elder teaches students about the significance of intergenerational work. The students were volunteering at Tribal Journeys. Bottom: Teenage member of the Yakima Nation and a student coach discuss the importance of maintaining culture for all peoples at the Colville Indian Nation pow wow.

For more information, contact:
Isabella Lopez
isabella@mlkfreedomcenter.org
714-335-3192

Martin Luther King Jr.
— FREEDOM CENTER —

Check us out at:
mlkfreedomcenter.org