Full Day Pay

Substitute teachers are required to do the same duties as would fall on the day(s) worked of the regular teacher for whom they are substituting. This includes, but is not limited to, bus duty, lunch room duty, recess supervision, and rally/assembly supervision. Substitutes are not expected to perform the regular teacher's paid extra duty assignments, such as coaching.

Substitute professional development training is completed annually. Verification of completion of training must be submitted to Human Resources at the commencement of each school year.

Any assignment lasting longer than 30 cumulative days (20 in Special Ed) during a single school year must be filled by a properly credentialed teacher.
